

Know your history, Preserve your culture

Free 2 day Workshop

wilam naling report ... knowing who you are ...

A report to the Victorian Government from the Victorian Koorie Records Taskforce

MELBOURNE WORKSHOP

Date: Wednesday 1st and Thursday 2nd August 2007
Venue: PROV, 99 Shiel Street, North Melbourne
Time: 9:00am to 4:00pm

Public Record Office Victoria (PROV) Koorie Records Unit is holding a two day workshop which provides important information to the Koorie community, non-government, and government record-holders on improving Access to Victorian Aboriginal records.

PROV has a number of small grants available for Koorie organisations and non-government record-holders which will help these organisations in preserving and making accessible Indigenous records. To be eligible to apply for the small grants, you must attend both days of the workshop.

DAY ONE

- Stolen Generations Overview
- Bringing Them Home Report and Recommendations relating to record keeping
- wilam naling Report and Recommendations
Providing better access to records
- Aboriginal community guest speaker/s talking about their personal experiences with accessing their records.
- Accessing Koorie records at PROV
- wilam naling Small Grants Scheme
Information session on the wilam naling's small grants scheme

DAY TWO

- Records Management
Learn about current methods of managing records including collection policies and the arrangement, description, and cataloguing of records.
- Records Conservation
Learn how to preserve paper records, books and photographs in your collections and to safely handle, display and store them. Learn about a range of useful conservation resources.
- Records Legislation
Explore the practical and legal issues involved in providing public access to records.

For further details contact: Simon Flagg – Acting Manager, Koorie Records Unit
Telephone (03) 9348 5629 email: simon.flagg@prov.vic.gov.au

RSVP Wednesday 25 July 2007

A Victorian Government initiative

